EXPORT DEMURRAGE/DETENTION (COMBINED)

WHAT IS DEMURRAGE/DETENTION

Demurrage/detention is also known as container rent. This is the charge the Ocean Carrier charges their customers for rental and usage of the containers after advised free days expires (inside and outside the port area)

WHEN WILL THE DEMURRAGE/DETENTION START

Demurrage/detention free days in Denmark always start the same day as the container is pick up empty at the depot/terminal, which can be found on the MSC Container Tracker - MSC Container Tracker. In other words, day of empty pick up is to be counted as the 1st day of the advised free days.

HOW IS THE DEMURRAGE/DETENTION FREE DAYS AND BILLING DAYS CALCULATED

Demurrage/detention is counted in consecutive calendar days which means, that every day including Saturdays, Sundays and various holidays are to be counted.

WHEN DOES THE DEMURRAGE/DETENTION STOP ?

Demurrage/detention stops when the container is loaded onto the scheduled vessel. If the vessel is delayed, proforma loading date will be in force, and stop the calculation.
